Germany's Winning Wines
Unimported Trade Tasting
28th June 2023

Wine Regions of Germany

Wines of Germany

Introduction

Earlier this year, Wines of Germany was joined by nine MW students, representing a cross section of the trade, to select Germany's Winning Wines for 2023. Our judges tasted almost 200 wines blind during the day, thinking about the price-quality ratio, typicity and character of each wine. From all the entries, they selected only the top 30% of wines that are not yet imported, that they think deserve a place in the UK market.

We are delighted to have these wines available for you to taste today; they exemplify the very latest from the German viticultural scene, and give a fascinating insight into the trends emerging from Germany at the moment. Sekt, organics, fungus-resistant varieties, aromatics, Pinot varieties and dry styles of Riesling are all very much in evidence in today's tasting.

Thank you to our Germany's Winning Wines judges:

Emily Brighton, North South Wines - Jitka Auermullerova, Wine Searcher - Joshua Castle, Noble Rot - Julia Lambeth, WSET School London - Leona de Pasquale, Camellia and Vine - Luis Gamiz, Indigo Wines - Marien Rodriguez, Berry Bros & Rudd - Mattia Tabacco, Oeno - Phoebe French, Wine GB

Nicky Forrest, Director Wines of Germany UK
